H. S. GRADUATES LARGEST CLASS IN HISTORY OF SCHOOL

Major Imrie Tells the Forty Graduates to Avoid
"Three Evils"

Solemnly marching to the strains of the processional Monday evening, forty high school seniors came to the last event of their high school days—graduation. As one by one, each received his diploma, and tossed the tassels of his cap to the right side, the members of the class of '31 became alumni.

Those graduated from the Antioch township high school this year were: Esther Anderson, Leonard Armstrong, Normal Barthel, Vera Down, Helen Buchert, Clara Christensen, Kenneth Denman, John Dupre, Ward Edwards, Charles Florio, Anton Fuchs, Marguerite Gallier, Alma Grulich, Olive Hansen, Charles Holmes, Robert Hughes, Lois Hunter, Harry Johnson, Ruth Mapes, Richard Martin, Jasper McCormack, Margaret McCormack, Jack Neahous, William Nielsen, Carl Pachay, Norbert Pacini, Helen Pedersen, Ruth Perry, Mildred Robinson, Marie Shedek, Pauline Shedek, Hazel Sheehan, Helen Simonsen, Edmond Strong, Ardis Toft, Frank Turk, Hazel Tweed, Lillian Wells, Fanny Westlake and William Yopp.

The class officers were: President, Olive Hansen; vice president, Richard Martin; secretary-treasurer, Mildred Robinson; class advisors, Mrs. Gladys Dardenne and C. L. Kull.

Imrie Discussed "Three Evils." A very fine address was given by Major Norman A. Imrie, of the Culver Military Academy. "There are three evils common to young and old alike—the disease of the head, ignorance; the disease of the heart, apathy or indifference; and the disease of the spine, fear and timidity. For these evils there is a cure that may be found in the slogan, 'Light, heat and power.' The light of learning is the cure for ignorance; the heat of enthusiasm will cure apathy; and the power of courageous action will overcome fear and lack of backbone."

The program included music by the high school orchestra, the processional, invocation by the Rev. Philip T. Bohl, music by the girls' glee club, singing "Wake Thee Now, Dearest," a folk song, and "In These Delightful Pleasant Groves," by Purcell, address by Major Imrie, presentation of diplomas and a brief speech by G. R. White, president of the board, presentation of the Rhodes agricultural awards to Kenneth Denman, Howard Schneider and Harold Sheen, by C. L. Kull, music by the chorus, singing "The Builder," by Cadman, "The Long Day Closes," by Sullivan, and the Hallelujah chorus from Handel's "Messiah," benediction by Rev. Bohl. Orchestral and vocal groups were under the direction of E. V. Jeffers. During the choral selections, which were exceptionally appropriate to the occasion.

ASSEMBLYMEN ARE ASKED TO OPPOSE BONDING MEASURE

Branding the bill now before the Illinois legislature, which passed will permit county supervisor boards to issue bonds without a vote of the people, as unpatriotic and probably unconstitutional, the Waukegan Taxpayers Association yesterday took steps to attempt to block the success of the measure through seeking to enlist the aid of the eighth district representatives and Senator Ray Paddock.

The following telegram was forwarded to Representatives Lyons, Bolger and Carroll, and Senator Paddock:

"A most pernicious, unpatriotic and, we believe, unconstitutional bill is now in progress through the House and Senate of the state of Illinois, which, if passed and signed by the governor, will permit the supervisors to issue a large amount of bonds without referendum. One hundred thousand people of Lake county are interested in this matter, and through the Waukegan Taxpayers Association, as well as other civic organizations, urge you to use all your power to prevent such a bill becoming a law. We suggest that you do not encourage your political suicide."

Will Supervisors Respect this Law?

Here is the law that Lake county Supervisors are asked to respect regarding payment of bills at the June session:

CHAPTER 102, ARTICLE 3 Illinois Statutes

It shall not be lawful for any person, now or hereafter holding any office, either by election or appointment, under the constitution of this state, to become in any manner interested, either directly or indirectly, in his own name or in the name of any other person or corporation, in any contract or the performance of any work in the making or letting of which such officer may be called upon to act or vote. And it shall not be lawful for any such officer to represent, either as agent or otherwise, any person, company or corporation, in respect of any application or bid for any contract or work in regard to which such officer may be called upon to vote. Nor shall any such officer take or receive, or offer to take or receive, either directly or indirectly, any money or other thing of value, as a gift or bribe, or a means of influencing his vote or action in his official character; and any and all contracts made and procured in violation hereof, shall be null and void.

THREE ANTIOCH BOYS RECEIVE RHODES AWARDS

Kenneth Denman, a member of the graduating class at the Antioch high school, was awarded the Rhodes gold medal at the commencement exercises at the high school building Monday evening, for having completed the year's best home farm project under the supervision of the department of vocational agriculture at the Antioch school.

Kenneth bought a Holstein heifer calf two and a half years ago and a year later bought another. He now has three animals of his own, the oldest producing over 5,000 pounds of milk during her first six months of milking. Kenneth showed this animal at the Aurora fair last year, where she won first in her class.

Howard Schneider was presented with the silver medal for having a Poland China swine production business with one animal as his foundation.

Harold Sheen was awarded a bronze medal for having placed third with his project in Hampshire swine production.

These awards are made annually by T. G. Rhodes, a Chicago business man interested in the Antioch territory.

C. L. Kull, instructor of vocational agriculture, presented the medals in behalf of Mr. Rhodes.

The projects were judged by a committee consisting of D. H. Minto, Clarence Crowley and Henry Grimm.

Mooseheart Officer Speaks of Jubilee Drive at Initiation

Judge Percious of Mooseheart, Ill., spoke before an attendance of about 150 at the initiation of members Monday evening, in the Danish Hall, on the "Silver Jubilee drive for membership" which is being launched by L. O. O. M. lodges.

A class of 29 was admitted into the lodge, after the initiation by the Kenosha degree and drill team. Visiting members were present from the Kenosha, Chicago and Elgin lodges.

The next regular meeting of the L. O. O. M. will be held next Monday evening, June 8.

Star Grands to Attend Advanced Officers' Night

Antioch Eastern Star Invites Her Neighboring Chapters

Eastern Star rites for advanced officers will be attended tonight by many from surrounding chapters, as well as two state officers, Mrs. Emma Hansen, associate grand matron, and Mabel Griggs, grand lecturer.

Esther Wilton, associate matron, will serve as worthy matron, and William Weber, of the Millburn chapter, will act as worthy patron.

Other officers are Linda Buschman, conductress of Antioch, as associate matron; Gladys Reid, associate matron of Libertyville, as secretary; Ann Oliver, associate matron of Eastern chapter, as treasurer.

Louise Simons, associate conductress of Antioch, will act as conductress; Isabelle Drysdale, associate matron of Waukegan, associate conductress; Mabel Griggs, grand lecturer, chaplain; Alice Goldy, Woodstock, organist; Fern Lux, past matron of Antioch, soloist.

Allie Gause, associate matron of Kenosha, will be marshal; Adeline Boehmer, associate matron of Mayflower, Adah; Viola Kapple, associate matron of Sorosis, Ruth; Frances Strenger, associate matron of Lake Forest, Esther; Louise Strenger, associate matron of Campbell, Martha; Elizabeth Jacobs, associate matron of Nunda, Electa; Laura Ferry, associate matron of Millburn, warder, and Thomas Dobbin, worthy patron of Millburn, sentinel.

Mrs. Myrtle Klass, worthy matron of the local chapter, Mrs. Lewis Van Patten and S. E. Pollock, worthy patron, accepted the invitation to go to Millburn Monday evening, when matrons' and patrons' night was held. Mrs. Klass took the point of Ada and Mr. Pollock acted as marshal.

Mrs. Earl Brown and son arrived Saturday from Chicago to spend two weeks with Mrs. Brown's sister, Mrs. Fred Peterson.

VETS OF THREE WARS HONORED HERE SATURDAY

Kapschull Speaks of Origin of Memorial Services
After Civil War

On accordance with a custom begun shortly after the Civil war, Antioch honored its soldier dead at impressive ceremonies at the decorated Hillside cemetery Saturday.

Charles Kapschull, of Deerfield, commander of the Eighth District of the American Legion, delivered the address. He spoke feelingly of what is owed to the memory of those who died to preserve the union and principles of our states of the United States, and he traced the development of the custom of honoring those who have died in war, which was first observed shortly after the Civil war, until it became a national holiday, known as Memorial Day.

In tribute to those who died unrecognized, Mrs. Cornelius Shultis, representing the Daughters of the G. A. R., placed a wreath upon the unknown soldier's grave.

Invocation was given by the Rev. Rex C. Simms, post chaplain; music was furnished by the Allendale band, and after the firing squad had saluted the dead, the program was closed by the Rev. Philip T. Bohl.

Two Vets Take Places in Parade.

Antioch's last surviving veteran of the Civil war—Addison J. Felter—and the only local veteran of the Spanish-American war—John Pacini—were given places of honor in the line of march. Mr. Felter, who spent his boyhood on a farm near Channel lake, enlisted when scarcely 17 years of age in response to the last call for soldiers made in January, 1865. For seven months he saw service in Georgia, Kentucky and Tennessee, with the army of Cumberland, and the 166th Illinois Infantry.

John Pacini served his country from 1898 until 1901, as a member of the 11th U. S. Volunteer cavalry. He spent a year in Cuba, and then was transferred to the Philippine Islands.

In the parade from the grade school to the cemetery, which preceded the services, were the American Legion colors, Allendale boys band, firing squad, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Felter, Mr. and Mrs. John Pacini, the American Legion, Daughters of the G. A. R., American Legion auxiliary, school children and Boy Scouts. The line of march was led by a motorcycle escort.

LOCAL OFFICIALS FAVOR TRAFFIC WAR ON "TICKET-FIXERS"

Police Magistrate J. C. James and Justice of the Peace William H. Regan and Sam Tarbell were in attendance at the meeting of county officials, magistrates, justices and police chiefs held at Lake Forest last night. Officials from Waukegan, Lake Forest, Highland, North Chicago, Zion, Barrington, Libertyville, Mundelein, Deerfield, Lake Bluff and Antioch were present and endorsed the proposal made by Chief Frank Tiffany to forcibly combat the practice of ticket fixing.

Although no resolution was offered, it was agreed that the most effective means of opposing efforts to thwart prosecution of traffic violations would be to institute a strict boycott.

Chief Tiffany cited examples of two communities which might be followed: "Harvey and Bensenville refuse to tear up a summons regardless of who makes the request, and I know that a similar pledge from law enforcement agents here will solve our problem."

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hunter are the parents of twin girls, born at the Kenosha hospital, Tuesday morning.

All Eyes in County Will Be Turned on June Board Meet

EAST SIDE AND
WEST SIDE TEAMS
EACH TAKE GAME

A victory on Thursday evening by the West Side baseball team was evened Monday afternoon by an East Side win. Both games were hard fought, enthusiasm among the players running high.

In a 10-inning thriller, in which close decisions by the umpire in settling the numerous arguments which arose proved an important factor in the outcome, the West Side took the game, 6-5, Thursday. However, the East Side strengthened their lineup and shifted their batters for the Monday game, and took an 11-inning game by the same score, 6-5.

Honors to date are even, each team achieving two wins. With the increase in interest among the business men, the teams are becoming stronger, showing improvement at each session.

The line-ups will be given next week.

AMBITIONS CHERISHED IN SENIORS' MINDS ARE PRACTICABLE

Over Half of Class of '31
Desires to Enter College

Ambitions worthy of the attainment of their high school diplomas were set forth recently by the members of the graduating class in a questionnaire prepared by The News. They are faced now with the problem of becoming prepared for some vocation which will give to them, first, a means of subsistence and second, a medium through which they can do their bit of the world's work.

Laudable daydreams, combined with practical plans to realize them were revealed in the questionnaire. Thirteen girls and ten boys intend some day to follow the light of learning at some college, five girls and seven boys were sure that they would not, and three boys and three girls were undecided.

Plans of Girls.

Clara Christensen plans to go to De Kalb and become a grade school teacher; although to be a nurse is her real ambition; Esther Andersen wants to attend college and become a teacher in commercial work; Ardis Toft may attend a normal or business college, specializing in commercial work; Mildred Robinson plans some day to major in commercial work at the University of Illinois; Fanny Westlake will major in Dramatics and physical education at the Illinois Wesleyan at Bloomington; Hazel Tweed plans to attend the Normal State Teachers' College; Ruth Mapes, the Racing and Kenosha Co. normal in preparation to becoming a primary teacher; Marguerite Gallier, the college at Springfield, to become a nurse; Helen Pedersen the University of Illinois to become a teacher of Home Economics; Olive Hansen, Bloomington or the Chicago Conservatory of Music, to specialize in music; Vera Down, the Bradley Tech, to major in history; Lillian Wells, Beloit, Wis., to major in history, although music is the line in which she would desire to become famous; Ruth Perry, DeKalb to become a teacher of the lower grades.

Hazel Sheehan, Helen Buchert, Alma Grulich, Pauline Shedek, Marie Shedek, plan to become stenographers; Helen Simonsen and Lois Hunter are interested in nursing; and Margaret McCormick would like to become the 4-H leader in her county.

Plans of Boys.

Jasper McCormack plans some day to attend the Coyne electrical college, to take up electrical engineering; Kenneth Denman and Ward Edwards will specialize in agriculture at the University of Illinois; Charles Florio wants to go to St. Louis to study further in the sciences; Frank Turk desires to major in athletics at the University of Wisconsin; Charles Holmes writes that he is going to take up engineering at Cambridge while Kenneth Van Patten states that he will take up engineering, although at Oxford; Tony Fuchs desires to major in music at Northwestern; Richard Martin has decided to major in English and Dramatics at Lake Forest; John Du-

SUPERVISORS AND OFFICIALS WARNED TO RESPECT LAW

STATE WARRANTS TO FOLLOW VIOLATIONS?

By H. B. Gaston

Will Lake county supervisors again disregard the Illinois statute regarding the payment of illegal claims when the board meets Tuesday in one of the most important sessions of the year? Will county officials again jeopardize their official positions and perhaps embarrass their bondsmen by issuing orders and checks for the payment of bills known to be illegal?

These are the questions in the minds of thousands of Lake county taxpayers who intend to watch with closest scrutiny the official acts as they transpire during the supervisor board session scheduled to begin Tuesday.

COUNTY AROUSED.

"Thousands of taxpayers in Lake county are fully aware of what has been going on in the court house for many years," a man prominent in county affairs declared today. "Lake county is thoroughly aroused; civic organizations, entire membership of clubs and hundreds of individuals of importance are thoroughly in favor of putting a stop to illegal practices in Lake county."

Many office-holders who are thoroughly honest and trustworthy in private life—men who would not think of cheating or defrauding a neighbor, seemingly feel no hesitancy or qualm of conscience whatever in breaking the law by taking illegally from the common fund that rightfully belongs to 100,000 people. Is it so appallingly wrong to take from a single individual when it is evidently considered shrewd business to grab illegally from the property of a hundred thousand taxpayers?

KEEN BUSINESS VS. PATRIOTISM

Public money in Lake county, apparently to some at least, is public property, and dishonest office-holders vie for the dishonor of putting their grasping hands deepest into the pot of public funds for individual profit. Contemporaries laugh it off, the press is silent, and no doubt the grafter secretly compliments himself for having engineered a keen piece of business at the expense of the taxpayers who have not taken the trouble to investigate, or who are too timid to bring the matter to the attention of the public.

The reckless orgy of spending and "railroading" of unwarranted and illegal expense bills by the supervisors must cease, the Waukegan Taxpayers Association declares. State warrants may follow any irregularities in this regard, it has been indicated by the group which has the backing of thousands of important and law-abiding citizens of Lake county.

Many of the supervisors, it is said, realize that drastic action is imminent.

pre, if he attends college, wants to go to Steven's Point to study music and directing; otherwise he will become a contractor; Robert Hughes, if he ever does go to college plans to take up athletic coaching or agriculture, either at the University of Illinois or at the Illinois Wesleyan at Bloomington; Harry Johnson may specialize in agriculture at some college.

Norman Barthel will become a farmer; Ed. Strang, a mortician; William Nielsen, an electrician; Leonard Armstrong, a business man; Norbert Pacini, an adventurer or an author; Carl Pachay, undecided. Jack Neahous did not take the questionnaire.

Ten years hence, will all these ambitions be partially or fully realized?

The Tax Spenders Are Organized; The Tax Payers Must Organize!

(Reprinted from Diamond Drill, Crystal Falls, Mich.)

"The information that we get in the legislature is mainly from the tax spender," said a member of the legislature to the writer recently. "We get but little from the fellow who pays the tax." That, in a nut shell explains why there is so much talk about reducing taxes and so little is accomplished in the line of actual lessening of the taxation burden. Most people blame the legislature when, as a matter of fact, the blame lies right with the taxpayers themselves.

We have been told that fully three-fourths of the bills that are introduced into the legislature and which call for more tax spending are brought there by tax spenders, mainly by organizations of public employees of officers who pay little or no tax but who thrive off the taxes that are levied. Look over the lists or organizations and see what Mr. Taxpayer is up against. There's the probate judge's association, the treasurer's association, the sheriff's association, the supervisor's association, the prosecuting attorney's association and so on right on down through to the coroners—yes, the coroners have an association and one of the trick bills of the past session was sponsored by the coroners of the state to increase their return.

Then in the employees line we have all kinds of associations. We have the League of Municipalities, an organization mainly of city managers whose objective is to allocate more power and more money to their jobs. Then we have the education association, the greatest and most influential lobby in the nation today. These associations are not formed for purely selfish purposes; they have much to commend them. While they are not intrinsically selfish they have many selfish persons in their memberships and some way these fellows who are continually looking to increase their own salaries or their own power always get to the front. Thus we have the influence of these organizations constantly pegging at the legislature to pass laws for their benefit—to increase tax spending.

Many times we hear the statement made that the "state tax is only a small part of our tax bill." Literally that is true but there is a figurative side to it that makes it very untrue. The whole state tax isn't represented in the column under "state taxes" on the taxpayer's tax bill. Much of the tax that is carried in other columns is of the state's making and should be charged up to the state and not to the subdivisions for it wouldn't appear in the tax bill at all were it not for the fact that the state, through its legislature, forced it there.

This forcing of taxes upon subordinate units is one of the fertile fields for operation by these organizations of tax spenders. They begin with getting a law through "allowing" the county or the school district or the township or city to pay their expenses to their annual meetings so that they can formulate plans there to bring more taxes upon the taxpayer in his subordinate unit. As a shining example of this we might mention a clause slipped into the school laws, empowering the boards of education to "pay expenses incurred by any of its employees when outside of the district..." in the performance of functions authorized by the board, a most vicious clause to be included in any law. The legislature has just passed an act authorizing the county to pay the expenses of the county agents to an annual session. A similar law, passed two sessions ago, provides the same thing for the prosecuting attorneys. And so we might continue down the line. These acts are unnecessary and uncalled for. They're petty grafting upon the taxpayers of the municipalities and they result from organizations of tax spenders.

Then we have the various voluntary welfare organizations; a lot of hobby riders who can see nothing but their own objective accomplished in their own single track way. They are constantly pestering the legislative bodies of all degrees to ingratiate their parasitic innovations onto the body politic. The schools constitute a most fertile field for their operation. Their master stroke comes when they succeed in getting the legislature to pass a law allowing the schools to assume the burden of their objective.

The taxpayer is the victim of these various organizations of tax spenders. Taxes have pyramided until they are today actually confiscatory. In several of the counties in Michigan the schools cannot pay their teachers because the taxpayers of the districts have not the money to pay their taxes. In one of the most populous districts of the state the teachers are being paid 25 per cent of their wages in cash and the balance in warrants. That's the condition that this taxspending mania has brought us to.

How can we cure it? The taxpayers must organize; organize not for the purpose of boosting some designing politician into office; not to get hold of office; but to present their case to the fellow in office in an honest and businesslike way. The legislators, if we can believe those who express themselves upon the subject, are very desirous of such an organization being formed. They want to know the taxpayer's slant on the subjects that come before them for passage; they want to know it from the taxpayer, not from some agency only relatively concerned with taxes. The tax spenders are organized; the tax payers must organize.

TAX DEFLATION

"Forces are gathering for the next period of prosperity," says The Insurance Field, editorially. "When a firm takes inventory it generally slows down on everything else until the process of itemization is finished. For eighteen months the whole world has been taking inventory of itself, and all industry has slowed down while undergoing the most searching of scrutiny from all directions."

"In this microscopic analysis of costs and expenses, the influence of taxation should not escape expert attention. Why not deflate taxation along with other outgo? Why not seize the psychological moment to show how much business expense is due to excessive cost of government?"

That's what the Waukegan Taxpayers Association is trying to accomplish in Lake county—deflate taxes—to save the half million dollars that it is claimed is mispent every year, not by curtailing public improvements but by eliminating greed, graft and grab, and stopping illegal expenditures—by criminal prosecution, if necessary.

Waukegan City Council News

The president of the Waukegan Taxpayers Association had the pleasure and profit of attending the first real meeting of the new Waukegan City Council Monday night.

The validating bill being signed by the government, the financial obstructions are cleared away so that the machinery can begin to function completely, and it is going to be some machine—efficient, harmonious, economical and constructive and I think we have a real captain at the head and his lieutenants will be a surprise to their constituents.

Of course, we can expect a gray spot or two once in a while that will only be a help rather than a hindrance, because it will create some obstacle that will induce a little fighting spirit, which is necessary.

There was more governmental intelligence exhibited at this meeting than I ever saw before in a legislative body. It was not all agreement, for there was a split on some of the appointments and there was an appointment made that the writer wished had not been made. However, this appointment is not a permanent one and will probably be smoothed out later. In fact, it must be.

I wish every municipal government in Lake county could have heard the report read by City Clerk John Wylie. Waukegan has made no mistake in electing John Wylie as clerk. I believe he is going to be more than efficient—he is going to be loyal and enthusiastically interested in his work. I believe this is John Wylie's opportunity to show his ability and the Waukegan people will profit by it.

I wish I had the time and space to mention each member of the council individually. However, I will do that later, giving what I think are the various abilities and patriotic qualifications.

I will also touch upon their committee work. In fact, this paper will contain the report every week, which will be of interest not only to Waukegan but also to other municipal governing bodies in Lake county.

Referring to our mayor, whom I know all are proud of and the results of his wise leadership during the next two years, there is only one thing I would suggest to Mayor Petersen and that is that he talk a little louder at council meetings, so that those who are hard of hearing may be able to appreciate his wise leadership more.

An item of interest was three bids for stationery, which ran as follows: The Waukegan Daily Times, $60; the Waukegan News-Sun, $48.50; the Franklin Press, $39.78.

The specifications were equally the same in all cases and Mayor Petersen was advised to take the lowest bid.

Too bad for the News-Sun, which has been prominent in receiving the patronage of past city governments, regardless of prices.

"INDEPENDENT ACTION"

Because of the earnest efforts of the Waukegan Taxpayers Association, which will soon be a part of the Lake County Taxpayers Association in its work towards making Lake county a better county for its hundred thousand or more people, the Waukegan News-Sun, which is published by Frank H. Just, felt it necessary to publish the following editorial in the News-Sun under date of April 24, 1931.

"Its Own Boss."

"In a letter addressed to each member of the Lake county board of supervisors, R. H. Stripe commanded that board to oppose the election of William J. Obee, of Highland Park, as chairman of the board for 1931-1932. One can picture him bristling with authority as he dictated the letter that would humble the board into the dust and make it his slave.

"When the board met for its organization session yesterday at the court house, it unanimously elected Mr. Obee as chairman. Not another candidate was even considered.

"Can it be possible that the county board intends to run its own affairs without outside interference? Can it get along without the invaluable advice of Mr. Stripe? It is going to run the risk of fire, brimstone and eternal perdition by tossing Harry's peremptory orders back into his teeth? It seems so.

"Sometimes we feel that the abolition of our county board would be a serious loss. We need an example of independent action now and then."

For more than three years this editor has used every means in his power to block the righteous work of the Waukegan Taxpayers Association. The president of the Waukegan Taxpayers Association realizes that he has a duty to perform in telling, through the Lake County Taxpayer, during the coming weeks and months the history of this man and all the obstructions he has thrown in the way of justice for the Lake county people.

This will be in a sort of historical series of articles and will begin with Harvey, Ill., and end with the present time, and, believe me, it will be some story.

The president of the Waukegan Taxpayers Association will not mince words and will spare no truth in telling the Lake county taxpayers for their own protection what this man really is.

If Mr. Just craves independent action, as he says, he is going to see that that action from a group that is as independent as it is unafraid.

LAKE COUNTY TAXPAYERS' NEWS

"And ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free"

Clerk and Treasurer Cautioned to Scrutinize Supervisors' Bills

OFFICERS WARNED AGAINST PAYING ILLEGAL CLAIMS

Irregularities Not to Be Countenanced at June Session

BONDSMEN FOR OFFICIALS MAY SCRUTINIZE ACTS

Scrutinizing eyes of thousands of taxpayers in all quarters of Lake county will be turned upon the doings of the County Supervisor board when that body convenes next Tuesday for the most important session of the year. It was revealed this week in letters sent to State's Attorney Col. A. V. Smith and County Treasurer Jay Morse by officials of the Waukegan Taxpayers Association, in which the officials are warned against drawing orders for the payment of illegal bills.

That filing of state charges and prosecution is imminent in cases where supervisors illegalize their official acts, is the belief of those who have followed the campaign launched by the Taxpayers group to curb waste and illegal spending of Lake county funds.

Smith to Advise Officials.

The Taxpayers' letter to Colonel Smith, which is in the form of a petition, asks that the state's attorney notify the county clerk that he must not draw orders for the payment of anything but the legal compensation supervisors are entitled to, and also asks that the county treasurer be notified that the must not issue checks in payment of any illegal bills that may result from the action of the Board of Supervisors at the June meeting.

Responsibility to Bondsmen.

The county treasurer's responsibility to bondsmen is alluded to in the Taxpayers' letter to Mr. Morse, in which the county treasurer is commended for his realization of this responsibility as shown by his careful handling of the Waukegan city funds.

Letter to Colonel Smith.

June 1, 1931

Col. A. V. Smith, State's Attorney of Lake County, Ill.
Court House
Waukegan, Illinois

My Dear Colonel:

I noticed with pleasure the reference made in the Antioch News of May 21, 1931, to your speech in Antioch before the Men's Club on Friday night, May 15.

In this talk you made a plea for better lawyers and less criminal lawyers and stated that you are handicapped by unscrupulous legal advisors of law breakers in your work for law and order in Lake county.

You must be brushing up on Taftism, Collidge principles and the great John Marshall's ideas of legal protection for the American people.

Last Saturday, May 30, President Hoover, in his Memorial Day address at Valley Forge, made a great plea for honesty and integrity among American citizens in order to bring back to our nation a better condition and a nearer approach to the exemplification of a great government of the people, for the people and by the people.

Yes, this whole country is rocking; in fact, the whole world is rocking, because we have not enough brave civilian soldiers.

You, as the leading soldier of Lake county, formerly in the military service and now in the civil soldiery for the protection of your constituents, were honored after your return from France with the greatest gift possible in your profession in Lake county.

You have been so honored for three successive 4-year terms. You are now about to enter the fourth year of this third 4-year term, and you have some serious problems immediately before you.

Among them will be found a most serious condition which we place before you in the form of a petition from the one hundred thousand or more people in Lake county who are directly under your judicial protection.

The investigators of the Waukegan Taxpayers Association, which will soon be a part of a Lake county organization, have found some serious things existing in the administrative affairs of the Supervisors of Lake county. We find that for many years they have been repeatedly breaking the laws of this state with regard to their compensation and business deals with their own organization.

One of the leaders in these offenses is the present chairman of the Board of Supervisors, William Obee of Highland Park. This man has not only acted contrary to law as superintendent of Lake county buildings, but according to the county records, he was not even a good superintendent. This is proved by the fact that more than a year after his superintendency of the county court house improvement nearly $1,000 had to be spent to make the court house comfortably habitable.

In addition to this, we find that he has been prominent in other illegal deals, such as the purchasing of soap supplies. He has been chairman of the Lake county General Hospital and numerous other matters that will be revealed when we get into court with his record.

Another Supervisor, we believe, who should be questioned and his record investigated is Paul Udell of Highland Park. This man has been chairman and member of the printing committee and the office supply committee and at the same time has done printing for the county Board of Supervisors in large amount. In other words, he has been illegally taking money from the taxpayers by passing on his own bills, which is unethical, to say nothing of being illegal.

We also find Mr. Vercoe, who is a banker in Highland Park, and another member of the Board, acting as chairman of the finance committee. This man sold $1,250,000 worth of bonds voted for road purposes on April 23, 1930, and has so far rendered no satisfactory report to the Board of Supervisors or the taxpayers.

These bonds were sold long before the money was needed, in fact, there is now almost a million dollars of this money unused and may not be used for some years to come. In the meantime the poor tax-burdened taxpayer is paying 5 per cent interest on them. This particular case should have your closest scrutiny in order to find out who is benefiting by this transaction.

We also find that Supervisor Kelly of Lake Forest has been employed in road construction work for this county, contrary to law, and hundreds of dollars have been paid him illegally. You should also give this your close consideration.

We firmly believe that when the past ten years' record of the various Supervisors is gone into that numerous other illegal beneficiaries will be found enjoying illegal compensation and we know that you will come to the conclusion that all of this illegal money will have to be returned to the county treasury for the benefit of the taxpayer.

We are not only interested in the past actions of the Board of Supervisors, but we are also deeply interested in preventing further illegal actions by the Board, and we hereby PETITION you to do your civil soldier's duty as state's attorney of Lake county to see that the Board of Supervisors do not further illegalize their official actions again by allowing bills to be paid at their June meeting which convenes on June 9, 1931, and will undoubtedly last for several days.

We also PETITION you to notify the County Clerk that he MUST not draw orders for the payment of any bills for anything but the legal compensation the Supervisors are entitled to.

We also PETITION you to notify the County Treasurer that he MUST not issue any checks in payment of any illegal bills to the Supervisors that may result from the action of the Board of Supervisors at this June meeting.

We also PETITION you to do your duty and take this opportunity to inform the Lake county Treasurer that he is violating the spirit under which he is bonded if he so does and that he is endangering the position of the Lake county Treasurer if he does not heed this warning and take the same stand that he took with regard to the Waukegan city fund recently.

We suggest that you immediately start suits against the various Supervisors who have broken the above law to the end that they may be compelled to reimburse the County and that they

MICHIGAN TAXPAYERS DO NOT TRIFLE WITH GRAFTING OFFICIALS

Best Results Are Obtained Through Filing State Charges

Criminal prosecution of those guilty of malfeasance of office is the most potent way of dealing with grafting officials in the state of Michigan, according to Thomas Conlin, agent of the Iron County Taxpayers Association, a 17 years old organization.

"I personally attend each meeting of the county board of supervisors, and also meet with many of the school, city and township boards," Mr. Conlin writes. "We endeavor to work with the officials of the county, but sometimes we have to get 'hardballed' and start court action. I have found that the best results are obtained through filing charges with the state against board members."

The Iron county association has saved thousands of dollars for taxpayers, and at the same time the government is more efficient, public improvements have cost less money—but they have the improvements just the same.

Indications are that Lake county, Illinois, is soon to witness the spectacle of officials endeavoring to explain to the court their illegal methods of handling public funds—methods that have cost taxpayers here hundreds of thousands of dollars.

be punished according to this law and be compelled to vacate their Supervisorship because of malfeasance.

This is a civil soldiers duty that you MUST PERFORM and it is the sincere hope that you will perform this duty so that you may be recommended to the people of your district for a possible step higher in your political career.

This letter will be published through the press of Lake county so that you may be encouraged and supported by the tens of thousands of your constituents who will watch the results of your patriotic service.

Sincerely yours,
Waukegan Taxpayers Association,
By R. H. Stripe, President.
Letter to Mr. Morse.

June 2, 1931

Mr. J. Morse,
County Treasurer of Lake Co.
Waukegan, Illinois.

My Dear Mr. Morse:

It is with pleasure and satisfaction that I read the report of your turning over $100,000 today to the new Waukegan city administration, and I wish to take this opportunity to commend you for your care and your realization of your responsibility and loyalty to your bonding company and your constituents.

You will notice by the enclosed letter to the state's attorney that you now have another serious matter to consider which is very similar, and I am sure that you will act with the same wisdom and patriotism that you did with regard to the city of Waukegan, for your own protection as well as that of the people who have honored you with your most responsible office, as treasurer of Lake county.

Sincerely yours,
R. H. STRIPE,
President Waukegan Taxpayers Association

Attorney Points Out Appalling Danger of Fraud, Extravagance

ALFORD PLEDGES REAL ECONOMY AND IMPARTIALITY

Declaring that friendships and personal sentiments will in no wise influence him in determining the fair valuation of any property in Waukegan township, Russ Alford, newly appointed assessor, has severed his connection with the Waukegan Taxpayers Association, an organization that he helped to form three years ago.

Alford was vice president and also a member of the executive committee. His letter of resignation follows:

May 27, 1931
Waukegan Taxpayers Association,
728 North Avenue,
Waukegan, Illinois

Effective at once, please file my resignation as Vice President, member of Executive Committee and a member of the Waukegan Taxpayers Association, with which I conscientiously feel obliged to sever all connection while I am Assessor of the township. The Town Board resolved in effect that the Board did not wish the Assessor to be doing business with those assessed for the present gain of the Assessor and I want to add to that principle that my personal moral conception of the situation is that the Assessor should be in the same impartial, detached position as is a judge with the association or affiliation with any body who may be affected financially, by the actions of a public official like an Assessor.

I do not want the members to misunderstand me or to feel ungrateful. I helped initiate the movement which resulted in the organization of the association and personally preferred to remain out of public office; many men of moderate means insisted upon my taking the Assessor's position, which I realize is one of serious responsibility.

I intend to conduct the office with absolute honesty, real impartiality and economy; hence, I am putting myself into a position in which my official acts will be governed solely by the law and facts upon which I must form my own opinion. I will always appreciate receiving from the Association, as well as anybody else, substantial facts; however, my conclusions based upon same must be mine as Assessor, and so, I hope, the Association and all other taxpayers will appreciate that friendships and personal sentiments will not influence me in any manner in determining the fair valuation of any property in the township.

Respectfully submitted,
(Signed) RUSS ALFORD,
Assessor.

RESOLUTION ON APPOINTMENT OF CITY ENGINEER

Waukegan, Ill.

May 29, 1931

BE IT RESOLVED By the Waukegan Taxpayers Association, in public meeting assembled: That in the appointment and confirmation of a Public Engineer, the Mayor and Aldermanic Council be requested to consider along with technical ability, an engineer's reputation, character, and sterling honesty and to avoid the use of taxpayers' money for the payment of any salary to any person who has been or is hostile to the true financial interests of property owners who have a right to expect the services of an engineer who does not certify to board of local improvements and by this means to the County Court, concrete paving which is not laid and which the property owners do not get regardless of the fact that by means of such kind of certification property owners are forced to pay to the paving racketeers thousands of dollars for no value whatever received.

That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Mayor and Council and supplied to the press.

Noll Declares Graft and High Taxes Breed Communism

Pointing out the appalling danger of Bolshevism, or Communism, through the fact that the American people are losing homes and farms at a rapid rate, Attorney Charles Noll, Waukegan, commends the work of the Waukegan Taxpayers Association in its task of uniting people in opposing the extravagant and fraudulent expenditure of public money, which he says is responsible for high taxes that amount almost to confiscation.

Serfdom made Russia an easy prey to radicals, Mr. Noll declares, and he goes right to the heart of things when he writes in his letter to the Antioch News that men of sinister and selfish motives are often in control of public money, and that powerful political machines are built up so that these office-holders may retain control of the expenditures of public funds. Mr. Noll's letter follows:

Waukegan, Illinois
May 29, 1931

The Editor
Antioch News
Antioch, Illinois
My Dear Editor:

The Taxpayers Association is an essential economic organization. It's membership should include every citizen in Lake county who owns a home or pays rent, as all tenants pay taxes indirectly.

We are now living in the greatest industrial and commercial period in the history of civilization. In the present commercial period our existence depends upon commerce and industry.

Industries and industrial workers are directly affected by the laws that are made and the policies of the political parties in power. Politics is often controlled by leaders who are men that have sinister and selfish motives. These men build up powerful political machines so that they and their friends may retain control of the expenditure of public funds. These funds are often misappropriated and extravagantly spent.

The foundation of our government is the home. The best and most patriotic citizens are those who have established a home, who are rearing children, and who are endeavoring to save a few dollars for old age, sickness, or other emergencies. There is no danger of bolshevism or communism in a nation of home owners. It was serfdom that made Russia an easy prey for the radicals who overthrew the government. The rapid rate at which the American people are losing their homes and farms at the present time is a question of great importance and appalling danger. The loss of homes and the lack of interest in home ownership is partly due to the extravagant expenditures of public money, resulting in high taxes, especially on real estate.

Our tax laws must be revised, intangible property must be made to bear its share of the burden. The Taxpayers Association is rendering a great economic service and doing a patriotic duty when it unites the people in opposing the extravagant and often fraudulent expenditures of public money.

The Taxpayers edition of the Antioch News should be in every home so that every man who pays taxes may be better informed and take a more active interest in the selection of the right men for public office.

Very sincerely yours,
(Signed) CHARLES NOLL.

Taxpayers of Lake county, have you asked your Supervisor what he is going to do at the June meeting with regard to audits and auditors for the coming year?

Remember that the past audits have not been made to the advantage of the taxpayers, but all to the advantage of despotic, greedy, grafting controls of some of the men you have elected to protect you.

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 31. The Golden Text was, "Sing unto the Lord, praise ye the Lord: for he hath delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of evildoers" (Jeremiah 20:13).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places" (Ephesians 6:11, 12).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The Christianly scientific man reflects the divine law, thus becoming a law unto himself. He does violence to no man. Neither is he a false accuser" (p. 458).

AGED WILMOT MAN TAKEN BY DEATH

Thirteen Are Graduated from the Union Free
High School

Ferdinand Stenzel, 81 years old, a resident of Kenosha county since 1876, died at his home early Monday morning, following an illness of several months.

He was born in Josenkowsko, Province of Posen, Germany, August 21, 1850. He spent his early life in his native land and was educated there, coming to America in 1876 and making his home in the vicinity of Wilmet, since that time.

He engaged in farming for many years, later taking up a small piece of land in Wilmet. On February 24, 1880, he was united in marriage to Miss Ottilia Berndt, who preceded him in death November 17, 1921.

Mr. Stenzel was well known in Kenosha county, a man who had many friends in the vicinity of Wilmet. He was a man of strong character, admired by all who knew him. He was a devout Christian, being a member of the Peace Evangelical Lutheran church of Wilmet.

He is survived by two sons and one daughter—William Stenzel and Otto E. Stenzel, of Wilmet, and Mrs. Fred F. Schenning, of Silver Lake. He is survived also by seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

The body was taken from the Hansen funeral home in Kenosha to the home of William Stenzel at Wilmet Tuesday afternoon. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from the home and from the Peace Evangelical Lutheran church. Interment was in the family plot in the Wilmet cemetery, Reverend S. Jedele officiating.

The Commencement exercises are being held tonight, at 8:15, at the gymnasium. Those graduating are: Clarence Aylward, Ruby Davis, Winifred DeBell, Elva Marks, Ruth Pepper, Claudia Vincent, Marjorie Van Lier, Gertrude Gauger, Hazel Schold, Mildred Stockwell, Alice Gilmore, William Bernhoff and Charles Lake. Ruth Pepper is valedictorian, and Hazel Schold, salutatorian. The speaker of the evening will be Professor J. H. Kolb, whose subject will be "Today and Tomorrow."

The final examinations were held Wednesday and Thursday. School will close this Friday.

The entire high school enjoyed a picnic at Fox River park late Thursday afternoon.

The Wilmet Pirates ran their string to four straight wins Sunday when they defeated the Jacobsons of Racine, 5-2. Shubert Frank pitched seven innings and held the Racine team to two singles and a double and struck out thirteen men. Norm Richter working in his first game in the home team, kept up the good work and allowed only one hit and struck out three in the last two innings. Norm Richter, Fritz Oetting and Aaron Smith were the leading hitters for the home team with two hits each. For the Racine team, Marani was the leading hitter, with two hits.

Next Sunday the Pirates play Bristol at Bristol. The game Decoration Day with Pikeville was postponed on account of rain and will be played at a later date.

Nearly 120 alumni gathered at the Wilmet gymnasium Friday evening for the annual banquet. The hall was festive with the junior prom decorations and flower appointed tables. R. S. Threnfeldt, Kenosha county superintendent of schools, was toastmaster, welcoming the guests and calling on the different speakers of the evening. Among those responding were Herbert Swenson, of Kenosha; Alice Gilmore, of Bristol; Florence Bloss, of Salem; Ermine Caroy, of McHenry; Professor A. Smith, Rural Normal at Union Grove; and Professor M. M. Schnurr, of the Wilmet high school. A number of vaudeville numbers completed the evening's entertainment. The annual election of officers followed, with Herbert Swenson elected president; Lynne Sherman, of Randall, vice president; Ruth Stoen, of Randall, secretary; Winn Peterson, of Kenosha, treasurer. A rising vote of thanks was tendered the retiring president, Cyril Dalton, of Beloit, who has served faithfully in some official capacity for the past four years.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Madden over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Lottay Madden, of Kenosha; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rauen and children, of Chicago; Dorothy and Bertha Monahan, at Wilmet; Mr. and Mrs. F. Madden and daughter, Lorraine, and Grandma Madden, from Kenosha. The latter will remain for the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schnurr and daughter, Bernice, of West Bend, were week-end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Schnurr.

Miss Letty Belle Holly returned to her home at Pound, Wis., Thursday. Rev. S. Jedele attended a Milwaukee conference of Lutheran pastors Wednesday and Thursday.

Donald Tyler, of Chicago, was a guest at Caroy's, Monday evening, while on his way home from a trip to Waupaca.

Emma and Elizabeth Kruckman motored to Brimfield Thursday, returning Friday. They were guests of George Dowell.

CHANNEL LAKE COUNTRY CLUB NEWS

Almost every member of the Channel Lake country club, as well as many guests, participated in week-end golf. The weather Saturday was not conducive to a crowded course, but the sunshine on Sunday brought them all out, and it was a very happy reunion for many of the members. The new manager has arrived and will be prepared to serve sandwiches and soft drinks at all times, and more hearty meals, providing they are ordered several hours in advance.

The various club activities will begin towards the end of June, and to crystallize the many plans in the minds of those in charge, the president of the ladies auxiliary, Mrs. Henry Paulson, is calling a meeting of the chairman on Saturday, June 13, at 2 p. m., at the clubhouse.

The ladies golf committee, Mrs. Wm. K. Gray, chairman, has already announced the opening contest, "Obstacle Putting," for Thursday, June 25, at 10 a. m. This committee would also gratefully receive prize donations for these Thursday events.

The chairman of the card committee, Mrs. J. H. Sandell, announces a preliminary party Tuesday, June 23, the regular summer tournament to begin June 30.

Courtesy cards for the friends of a member will be given out upon request, and the board of directors announces a reduction to $1.50 for Saturday and Sunday greens fees. And for the members who paid the assessment last fall, a certain number of guest tickets will be given gratis. Ask one of the officers or directors for further particulars.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sandell have taken the small Volk cottage for the season, and will stay on permanently after June 20. Mrs. J. N. Tankersley and Mrs. Harry Arms are already settled in their cottages for the summer. Mrs. Wm. S. Mills is at her home on Lake Marie, recuperating from her recent illness. Mrs. Charles W. Laflin will not be a permanent resident until about July 4, as she is turning over her cottage to her son and his wife June 20 for two weeks. Miss Frances Laflin is in California, spending her vacation with friends in San Diego. She expects to return to Chicago on about June 21.

Antioch Baseball Team Loses to Fox Lake by One Run

The local baseball team met a close defeat Sunday when the Fox Lake team triumphantly concluded the game with a 1-run lead, and left an Antioch man dying on third.

Bown's fine pitching received ragged support from his teammates at times, thus enabling Fox Lake to come through with a 10-9 win.

Antioch went into the ninth, trailing by three points, but a run by McNeil and a home run by Shunnesson brought in two runs, and left a tying run on third. This run, however, failed to materialize.

Antioch will travel to Round Lake Sunday to engage the fast Round Lake team and are anticipating a stiff game. The team will be reinforced by new candidates who appear to be the "real stuff."

Allen Morgan, of Chicago, and Mrs. Howard Zoerh and children, of Milwaukee, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kruckman.

Corinne Lake was ill and under the care of Dr. A. Becker the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blood and children were at Lake Geneva Sunday for the day with Mr. and Mrs. A. Williams.

Mrs. L. Hegeman spent Saturday at Richmond with Mrs. R. C. Burton. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Stoen and Ruth spent Saturday at Wauconda. Sunday they entertained Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dorwin, of Wauconda, and Mrs. Earl Thomas, of Greenwood. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dunn and family, and Mrs. McNamara and son, James, of Chicago, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Carey.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Thomas, of Chicago, spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. James Buckley. Mr. Thomas is vice president of the Moulding Brownell company, of Kankakee, and Mrs. Russell Peckham, of Chicago, who were guests of the Buckleys last week, were returned to their respective homes Wednesday.

Fern Jacob was in Rockford, for the day Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Beck spent the week-end in Aurora.

Sylvia and Iva Dowell are home for the summer vacation. Both have been re-engaged in their school positions for another year, Sylvia at Zenda, and Iva at Newport.

Mrs. Sylvia Sniffin and Rose, of Rockford, and Mr. and Mrs. Duval Dowell and children were guests over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. George Dowell.

Domestic Corporations Increase; Regarded as Favorable to Business

Owing to the fact that the corporation department in the office of William J. Stratton, secretary of state, is one of the best barometers of business conditions, the following information is very interesting.

From the records of this department it would appear between January 1, 1930, and April 30, 1930, the secretary of the state, Stratton, issued certificates of incorporation to 2,223 domestic corporations.

For the same period of 1931 he issued 2,466 certificates of incorporation to companies organized under the laws of this state.

Between January 1, 1930 and April 30, 1930, he issued 355 licenses to foreign corporations to transact business in this state and for the same period this year he issued licenses to 219 foreign corporations.

From these figures it is clear that although there were incorporated in this state the first four months of this year 123 more domestic corporations than for the same period last year, the number of foreign corporations licensed decreased 136 for the same period.

According to those in charge of the department, it would appear this difference is due to the fact that it is more difficult to market the securities of corporations organized under the laws of states designed especially for stock selling and promotional schemes than it is to market the securities of corporations organized under the laws of Illinois, which have always been designed as conservative yet sufficiently flexible to allow any legitimate concern sufficient power to carry on the business for which it is incorporated.

Library Receives Donation of Books

Days and Hours for Summer
Months Are Announced
This Week

Announcements of new books recently received by the Antioch library is made this week. Two donations have been received, one from the Christian Science Society and the other from Camp Chi. The Christian Science Society has given eight small volumes by Mary Baker Eddy, including historical, religious, and miscellaneous writings.

The Camp Chi contribution includes some verse—Guest's "The Path to Home," Bryant's poems, Lanier's letters, George Eliot's "Poems and Essays," Whittier's poems, and verse by British poets. Books of travel include Burke's "White Road to Verdun," Pelmer's "In the Klondike," Higginbotham's "Three Weeks in Belgium," Southworth's "Santa Barbara," Hanson's "Travels in the Holy Land," Drummond's "The Great Fight," Bruere's "Increasing Home Efficiency," Capek's "Bohemia under Hapsburg Misrule," Gauss's "Why We Went to War," Nida's "Story of Illinois and Its People," and Marvin's "Adventurers of Odysseus."

Fiction by Corelli, Rinehart, Crockett, Ferber, Dumas, Joel Chandler Harris, Yzleska, French and Spanish texts, and a number of books which include a wide range of reading material have also been given.

The library will be open during the summer on Tuesday and Friday afternoons from 3 to 5 o'clock Standard Time.

It is located in the east room of the grade school building (in the new building).

TIMELY TOPICS BY ANTIOCH PEOPLE

SPEED

By Philip T. Bohl.

The present day speed with which we travel and do things has created a serious problem for this generation to solve. It was not a problem to the generation preceding ours. We have been made suddenly to realize that although speed may be desirable, it may likewise be disastrous in its results.

Statistics in the "Illinois Health Messenger" show that 2,464 deaths resulted from automobile accidents in Illinois during 1930, an increase of 508 over 1929. The report further states that the number of deaths during 1930 was nearly 26 per cent higher than during 1929, while the number of motor vehicles licensed in the state increased only 1 1/2 per cent. The death rate per 100,000 population due to automobile accidents last year increased nearly 20 per cent over the year before. That this is a grave situation is increasingly recognized.

If excessive speed could be removed from automotive travel, a high per cent of these fatalities would never occur. Serious automobile accidents are almost always the result of someone being in an unusual hurry. The contribution of medical science to the lengthening of the average human life is largely counteracted by the speed craze which seems to possess this generation.

This report showing the number of fatalities due to automobile accidents is only half of the story. It does not report the thousands who were involved in these accidents, but did not lose their lives. It does not give the number who were crippled, some for life. It does not give the thousands of dollars spent in hospitals and otherwise for the recuperation of health. Nor can it estimate the number who are nervously shot to pieces as a result of these accidents.

There seems to be a strange inconsistency in the human makeup. Most of us would spend our last dollar to save our lives and restore our health. And yet, because we are in a hurry, we take risks that jeopardize our lives in order to save a minute of time. What do we do with this minute we have saved?

An old doctor, commenting upon the change of things during his lifetime, remarked that in the earlier days, when he was called on a case, someone came for him on horseback. He would then harness and hitch his team to his buggy and often drive miles into the country over bad roads. And when he reached the bedside of his patient, they always appreciated his getting there so soon. But now, he said, they call us by phone and we jump into our car that is always ready, and are there in a few moments. And then they complain because we did not get there sooner. The old doctor said that nowadays everybody is in a hurry, we do things faster and yet we haven't as much time as we did in days gone by.

A chemistry professor was found dead in his laboratory, overcome by a strange gas which he had discovered in one of his experiments. Most of the formula was found on a table. This scientist had discovered a power over which he had no control, and which had caused his death. There are some who wonder if the same does not hold true of the present generation. Perhaps we have discovered a strange power which has resulted in excessive speed which, unless it is brought under control, may prove our destruction.

Chapter V

THE PASSING OF THE WASH BOARD

MOST OF US can easily remember the "good old days" before the War, when hobble skirts made walking all but impossible. When elaborate feathers drooped fetchingly from every feminine hat. When the turkey trot was the dance of the hour. When moving picture houses were nickelodeons.

Today we laugh at these picturesque mannerisms of twenty years ago. But there is another side of the scene that was no laughing matter. Every Monday was a Blue Monday. Women got up at dawn. Clothes had been put to soak the night before. Hot steam clouded the basement. Backs were bent, knuckles bruised, over scrub boards. It was afternoon before the complete washing was out blowing on the line.

Those were the days when electric service was still nothing but a lighting service.

Small wonder, then, over the interest that followed the news that an electric washing machine had been invented! Its wooden tub sprouted a maze of belts and levers and gadgets. But crude as it was, it promised welcome relief from washday drudgery. In communities where electric service lasted only from five o'clock in the evening until eleven at night, special service was provided for Monday morning. Electricity began to do more than give light. It began to ease the homemaker's burden.

At the same time, ironing-day underwent a big change. No longer was it necessary to line up half a dozen "sad-irons" on the fire.

To replace these came the electric iron. Then the "mangle". And soon the mangle became the power ironer when it was improved to handle more than large flat pieces. Today one can sit down and guide most of the washing over its heated roller.

Gas-heated cabinet driers were developed to make it easy to dry clothes in the basement, rain or shine. Convenient ways of heating water—lots of it—were introduced. Washing machines were improved again and again, like automobiles, until today they bear little resemblance to the early models.

Sponsoring, developing and improving labor-saving appliances for northern Illinois homes has been another job undertaken by the Public Service Company. For years the Company has acted as a sort of liaison between its customers and manufacturers of household equipment. It has carefully tested the appliances it sells in its stores—has fortified their operation with an unqualified guarantee. Where servicing or replacement has been necessary, the customer has always found the Company ready and more than willing. It has studied the experiences of customers using appliances and in many instances has laid specific requirements for improvement before the manufacturers.

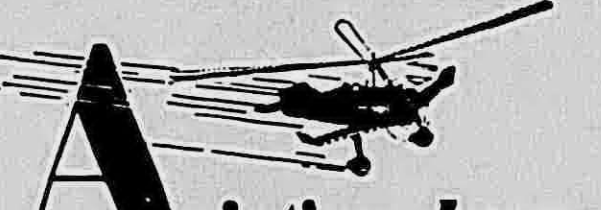

In all these efforts the Public Service Company has been trying to make it easier for electricity and gas to do the routine tasks of keeping house—to give women more leisure for enjoying the new freedom this generation offers.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY OF NORTHERN ILLINOIS

This is the fifth of a series of stories chronicling the development of the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois and the service it is bringing to the area into which Chicago is growing. Copies of previous chapters will be mailed you if you will write to the Company, 72 West Adams Street, Chicago.

TWO DECADES IN THE SERVICE OF NORTHERN ILLINOIS

NASH

Aviation demands Twin-Ignition!

NASH OWNERS
CALL IT INDISPENSABLE!

Air Commerce Regulations, issued by the United States Department of Commerce, absolutely require two spark plugs per cylinder on all commercial aircraft motors of over 40 horse power.

Aviation demands perfection in power. And so two spark plugs, twin sparks, are employed in aircraft motors—to burn the gasoline more efficiently—to provide power, speed, safety and economy beyond the reach of single ignition.

For the same reasons, Nash engineers, in Nash Eight-90 and Eight-80 motors, also provide Twin Ignition.

Of course, you can get along without Twin Ignition. But here, in engineering figures, is what you are missing:

The same motor, with Twin Ignition instead of single ignition, produces 22% more power, 5 miles an hour more top speed, and 2 extra miles of travel from every gallon of gasoline.

And, the prices of these Twin-Ignitioned motors Nash Straight Eights are no higher than the prices of other cars without this important improvement!

CLIMAX PARTIES
FOR THE CHILDRENForestall Their Restlessness
by Planning a Party in Early Vacation

For a day or two after school is out the children are happy and busy, glad to be released from the routine of studies. Then comes restlessness. What to do with all the leisure hours? Before the children are scattered for visits with relatives or friends for the summer vacation, and while they are still wondering what to do is an ideal time to give a children's party. Your children can be kept busy in preparation for it, and their friends quelled by anticipation.

Mother Engineers Everything.
Not every mother has learned the secret of running a children's party smoothly—supervising the games, keeping the little guests interested and happy in wholesome fun—and then, as a climax, bringing on the refreshments, which always are uppermost in the minds of youngsters.

Mother must be on hand to guide the games; but, also, she must have good things to eat. Too often, she is forced to leave the children without leadership in order to prepare the refreshments. Then, the youngsters may fall into aimless rough-housing and the party may become overly boisterous.

Preparing the party refreshments the day before permits mother to keep her hand in the games, because she will have everything ready to serve at a moment's notice.

Menu Easily Prepared.
As a suggestion for such a menu she could have:

Jellied Chicken
Fancy-Shaped Sandwiches
Hot Chocolate with Whipped Cream
Vanilla Ice Cream Sandwiches

The jellied chicken is made the day before and chilled in the refrigerator. Garnished with hard-cooked eggs, cut in fancy shapes, it looks quite partied in its nest of lettuce and water-cress. The ice cream sandwich, also, can be made the day before. Vanilla mousse for this popular dessert can be bought and kept hard in the electric refrigerator tray, or it can be made easily. The sandwiches can be made in the morning, covered with a damp cloth and kept fresh in the electric refrigerator. If the party is held in hot weather, a milk shake or float can be prepared the day before and kept in the refrigerator.

Pencil and Pad
Indispensable, Yet
How Often Missing

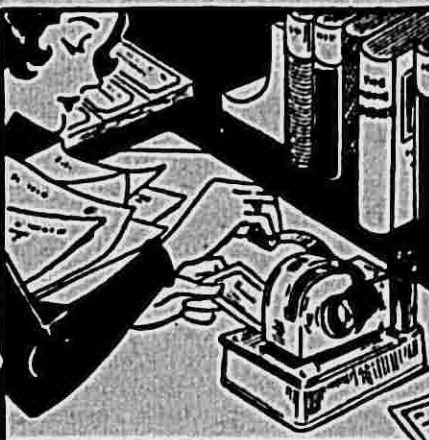

One thing many times lacking, even in "the best of regulated families" is an available pencil and pad. Upon urgent demand, they may be unearthed, after much rummaging in desk and drawers. Often a guest desires to make a memo of some address, recipe, or name, and then you must hunt high and low for a pencil. Or if the visitors wishes to write a letter, or scribble a note, it may be that the fountain pen is empty, the ink clogs, the tablet has but one sheet, or the lead on the pencil is broken.

A pencil is one thing that nobody respects as the property of another. If borrowed, it is seldom returned; if broken, seldom fixed; if lost, never replaced, until absolutely necessary. And when there are children, the situation is, of course, much worse. In most homes there is a desk, or at least a small writing table. And so often they are hopelessly littered with the year's collection of letters, papers (some of importance) and junk.

Keep Hidden Supply.
An individual box to contain the children's few letters, post cards, valued Christmas cards and valentines, would eliminate some of the clutter. Husbands are notoriously lax about sorting their mail, and unreasonable when they want something they haven't filed away, but that must be worked out between you and him. If everything is piled neatly into pigeon holes or cabinets, the top of the desk kept clean, a blotter, corked ink bottle, pen, and sharpened pencil laid out invitingly, no guest will feel embarrassed to ask for the use of writing materials.

These will not remain neat for long, but a wise housekeeper will keep a supply of "penny" pencils and scrap paper in a hidden drawer in the kitchen cupboard, where she can easily produce them when needed. Should there be secrets in a household? Emphatically yes, in instances of this kind.

Hints For Homemakers
By Jane Rogers

WITH so many women taking over practically the whole responsibility of handling the family income, sound home-banking methods are of increasing importance to homemakers. An inexpensive mechanical device that prevents checks from being raised or altered is a sound investment for the woman in the home.

To beat egg whites quickly add a pinch of cream of tartar before starting to beat. The eggs will froth more quickly and hold their shape a longer time.

Health In The Home Menu

Basic Foods and Simple
Recipes for Healthful
Family Diet

"PLENTY" of milk, fruits and vegetables every day, eggs several times a week, meat or fish or cheese once daily, with cereals, sweets and fats to make up the calories"—that is the simple recipe for a healthful diet.

Nutrition is a complicated science but its findings are easily interpreted. For children there must be three or four cups of milk daily, and grown-ups need at least a cup. There must be fruit for every one.

Oranges, bananas or tomato juice certainly every day for the children. Incidentally, bananas which are an all-year fruit are extremely rich in food values. But the bananas must be ripe—flecked with brown. In this condition they can be given even to tiny babies when the pulp is finely crushed. Cooked, dried and canned fruit may be used as well.

Vegetables—potatoes each day and at least one green or yellow vegetable should be used liberally. The following economical but nourishing meal can be used as a base for all meals of the week.

Breakfast
Orange juice with sliced bananas
Cooked cereal — or — Ready-to-eat cereal
Poached eggs
Milk for children
Coffee

Luncheon
Soup
Baked bananas with Bacon
Cabbage and Pepper Salad
Bread
Milk for children
Gingercake

Dinner
Roast Shoulder of Lamb with Barbecue Sauce
Baked Potatoes
Scalloped Carrots with onions
Caramel Custard with Toasted Marshmallows

Baked Bananas with Bacon
6 bananas; 1/4 pound bacon.
Peel bananas and arrange in oven proof baking dishes or platters. Cover with sliced bacon and bake in a hot oven 450° F. about fifteen minutes until bananas are tender and bacon is crisp. Baste at least once during the baking. Whole or halved bananas may be wrapped in bacon and cooked in the same way, or broiled.

Barbecue Sauce
1 small onion; 3 tablespoons butter; 2 tablespoons vinegar; 1/2 cup catsup; 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce; 3 tablespoons prepared mustard; 1/2 teaspoon celery seed; 1 cup meat stock from the roast.
Slice the onion lengthwise and saute lightly in the butter; add the other ingredients and simmer slowly for 15 minutes.

SMALL ROOMS
NEED NOT BE
CROWDED COOPSAppear Larger by Use of Much Light, and Small
Furniture Pieces

For one just beginning housekeeping this June, or for those moving into an apartment which allows 8 feet square for a dining room, these suggestions on furnishing may be timely.

So many of these cubby-hole rooms, particularly dining rooms, are gloomy and confining, but with a little knowledge of the basic principles of home decorating, this need not be the case. Light colors always tend to cause anything to appear larger. Therefore allow as much light as possible into the room, and use sunny, light decorations—cream color is ideal for the woodwork and walls in kitchen, bedroom or small dining room, and may be set off by a wall paper of beige and soft green. Hangings, flower pots, vases, lampshades, table tops, and dishes in either of these colors will assist in your attempt to make a room appear more spacious and cheerful.

Furniture in a room of this size should not appear to dominate the room. Small neat chairs and a 2-part table, or a table with drop leaves, side tables, built-in cupboards, or closed cupboards which project but a little way, add much to the effect of space and decoration.

Small Bedrooms Cozy.
Small bedrooms can be made into the coziest nooks imaginable if the proper combination of furniture and decorating colors is employed. Although walnut, maple, or other beds with head- and foot-boards, are naturally better looking and in better taste than cots or iron beds, yet in a tiny bedroom, especially if it is a child's, a cot or iron bed made up with bright coverlets is infinitely more suitable. One chair and a low dresser with a rag rug or an animal skin thrown down before it, gay curtains, a what-not or knick-knack shelf, and suitable pictures, transform what might easily be a crowded coop into a livable nest.

Origin of Meteorites
Meteorites are believed to be small fragments of a world that once existed between Mars and Jupiter. The bigger fragments form the little planets known as asteroids, of which hundreds are known.

TOPPY'S TRAVELS

Synopsis: Topsy leaves home to follow his canary. After many adventures, Mr. Frog and Toy, the dewdrop, cause the Cushions to fight the Pillows, who have invaded the land of the Cloud-Queen. The Pillows, however, seem to be winning from the Cushions, so Topsy decides to train an army of the Cloud-people. He sets forth toward Mist Valley, which is to be his headquarters, and cleverly escapes two guards. Continue the story:

Topsy traveled all that night, but as the sun rose over the hills, he was weary of limb. He resolved to rest just a little while and then continue, but no sooner had he stretched out in a hidden nook than he was fast asleep. Ere he awoke the day had passed, and the wan moon was gleaming halfheartedly. He rose to his feet with a start, dismay pouring through his entire being.

"What would Mr. Frog think of me?" he thought uneasily, and began to hurry onward. He must not, oh, he must not fall this time! He had a little difficulty in the pale moonlight discerning the landmarks Mr. Frog had described, but he believed that he must be on the right trail. All night he traveled, but when the morning light came once more, no valley was yet in sight.

Topsy's cheery mood deserted him as he gazed over the countryside with tired eyes and feet. He realized that he was hungry for something more solid than berries and greens, and the thought did not make him any happier.

He tramped on, watching for Pillows, and for some landmark to direct him. He repeated to himself the directions given him by Mr. Frog, and then halted in his tracks, desperately peering about him.

He was lost!

There was nothing to be done but to retrace his steps as best he might until he came upon the right path again, but he could scarcely lift his feet. With a great effort he lifted one foot, thrust it forward, set it down, and repeated the process with the other one. He did this about twelve times, and then was startled to hear a hoarse laugh sound above him.

Feebly clinging to his sword, he looked up and beheld a falcon sitting in a tree and laughing boisterously.

"Ho, ho! What have we here?" roared the falcon. "Is that the latest dance I've been hearing about? Let me see—maybe I could do it, too." He hopped down into the path, some paces from Topsy and began an exaggerated imitation of his walk.

Topsy was amazed and a little fearful of this new intruder. What might not those flapping wings do to him? He thought it best to be polite, even though the bird had been so rude.

"How do you do?" he asked.

"Why, how do you do?" echoed the falcon, in mocking reply.

Topsy was puzzled. He didn't know what to say, so he remained silent, watching the bird with a wary eye.

The bird strutted toward him, looked him over curiously, sat down in front of him and once more broke into hearty laughter.

Matchless economy

with six-cylinder smoothness

"Better than 20 miles to the gallon." "Its cost-per-mile is the lowest of any car." "Never have to add oil between crankcase changes." "Drove from Ohio to California on a repair expense of $1.05." "It just runs and runs and runs."

—typical comments from owners of the Chevrolet Six

Chevrolet's 157" frame supports the body through-out its entire length

Why is it that Chevrolet—a big, powerful, smooth-running six—actually costs less to operate and maintain than any other car you can buy? The answer lies in five outstanding factors of Chevrolet economy:

1. Efficient Engine Design makes Chevrolet fuel consumption so low that 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline is nothing unusual for a Chevrolet owner.

2. Modern Chassis Design—as evidenced by Chevrolet's long heavy frame, four parallel-mounted springs, and smooth-running six-cylinder engine—increases the ability of the Chevrolet Six to run dependably, day after day.

3. Excellence of Manufacture also adds to Chevrolet dependability and long life. Chevrolet pistons, for instance, are built so carefully, and held true to such close limits of precision, that many owners have gone 20,000 miles or more without having their motors opened for major servicing.

4. High-Quality Materials are used throughout the Chevrolet car—costly nickel steel, chrome-vanadium steels, chrome-nickel steels—to assure trouble-free, low-cost service for tens of thousands of miles.

5. Economical Nationwide Service, with its low flat-rate charges on labor and genuine parts, is available at 10,000 dealers throughout the country, who also offer the protection of the most liberal owner's service policy ever to back a low-priced car.

Remember—in addition to all these basic economies—Chevrolet offers the extra dollars-and-cents advantage of one of the lowest delivered prices on the market. And this cost may be spread over a period of many months by the liberal G.M.A.C. plan.

 sion, the audience was hushed in tribute to the fine singing and to the occasion of graduation.

Honor Students Recognized.
 As the diplomas were presented, a summary of each student's activities during the four high school years and the number of credits received was given by Principal L. O. Bright. Ward Edwards and Marie Shedeck were tied for valedictorianship, as their scholastic averages were the same. Ruth Mapes also was given honorable mention. Richard Martin had the highest number of credits ever before received by a student of the high school, obtaining twenty-six and a fraction. Olive Hansen, the class president, received recognition of the difficulties overcome, responsibility discharged, and things accomplished while president of the largest graduate class in the history of the school.

H. S. Instructors Leave School for Summer Activities

Three to Spend Vacation in Directing Work at Boys' Camps

While several of the high school instructors are taking themselves to distant states and lands, most of them will remain somewhere near the vicinity of Antioch during the summer.

Mrs. Gladys Dardenne will have charge of the junior camp at the Hastings lake for the Y. M. C. A. after its opening June 27. Mr. Dardenne will be program director.

G. G. Reed will be employed again

WARNING To Automobile Owners Unless your vehicle tax is paid by June 25, 1931, you will cause yourself to be arrested for failing to pay your tax. By Order of the Village Board this summer at Camp Algonquin at Burt lake, Michigan, where he will instruct the boys in riding.

E. V. Jeffers, after a trip to Washington, D. C., and other points in the East, will be occupied at the Y. M. C. A. camp at Hastings lake as social directors of the senior camp and supervisor of occupational projects.

To Attend School.
 Miss Cornelia Roberts plans to attend the summer camp of the G. A. A. at Waukegan in June, and later continue her work in history at the University of Chicago summer school.

Mrs. Ruby Richey will attend the intersession course at the University of Columbia, during June, specializing in home economics. She will be joined by her son, Paul, who will make the trip with Mr. Thompson, of Gurnee, about the first of July, and will then enroll in the summer course.

Other Plans Being Pursued.
 H. H. Reickers is planning to tour Kentucky and Tennessee during the early part of the summer. He will spend some time traveling in the West, and working in South Dakota, and the latter part of vacation at his home in Belmont, Wis.

C. L. Kuttel will spend most of the summer assisting the boys in farm projects, but in July will take a vacation at the Menominee reservation on the Wolf river in northern Wisconsin.

Miss Alice Smith and Fred Hackett will spend the vacation at their homes, and will conduct summer classes at the high school.

Principal L. O. Bright, unless his present plans are changed, will remain in Antioch.

Hans von Holwede has departed for a visit to his native land, Germany.

BUSINESS IS BUSINESS

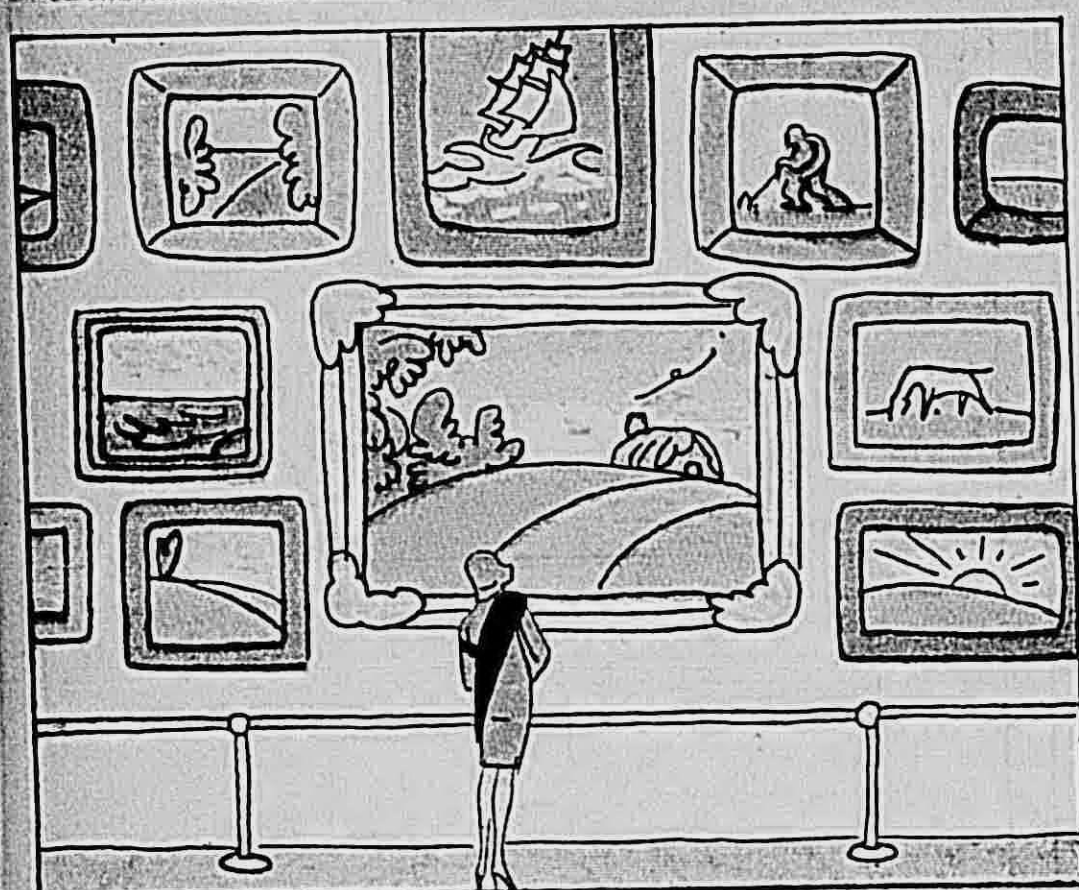

H'lo Dorothy-Jack! How 'bout going to a studio party at Van Daubens - you know-the painter-this afternoon?

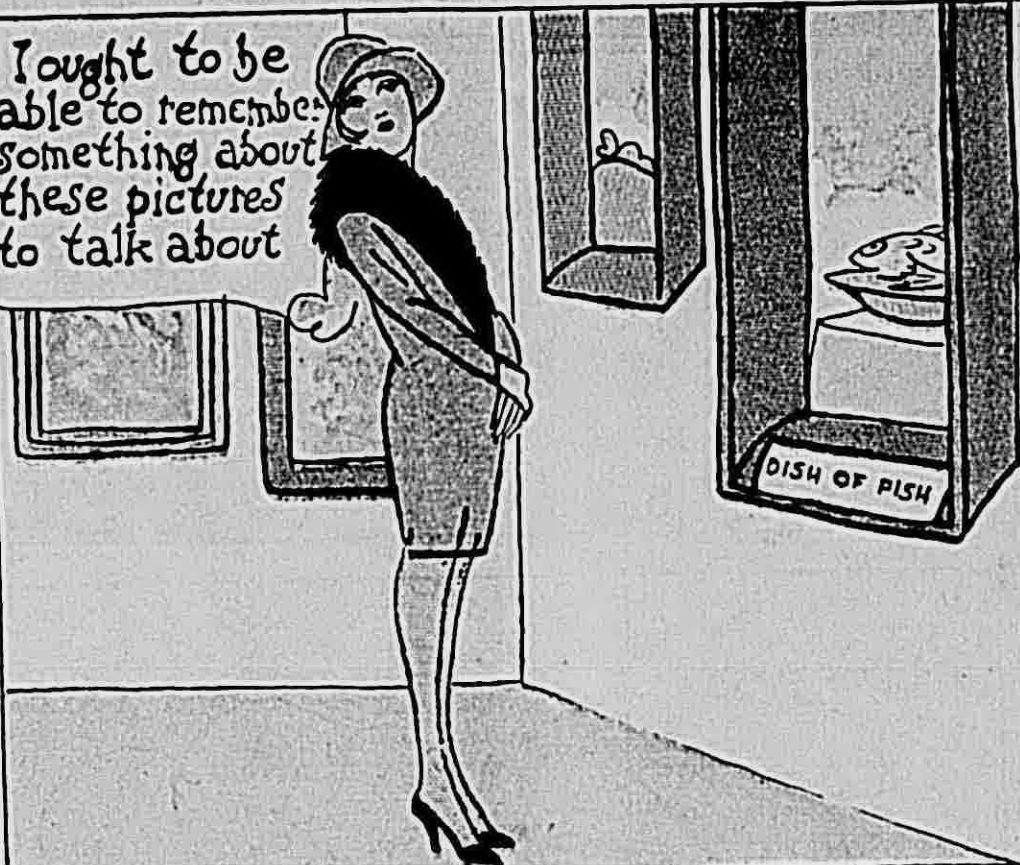

How thrilling! I'd love to!

I'm scared to a crisp - they probably talk nothing but Art and the Old Masters - I'll go to the museum and try to learn something -

I ought to be able to remember something about these pictures to talk about

"by de Pravittie" - I'll rave about him - most brilliant and promising of the modernists -!

-now for some facts about the Old Masters-

BOOKS

Complete History of Art

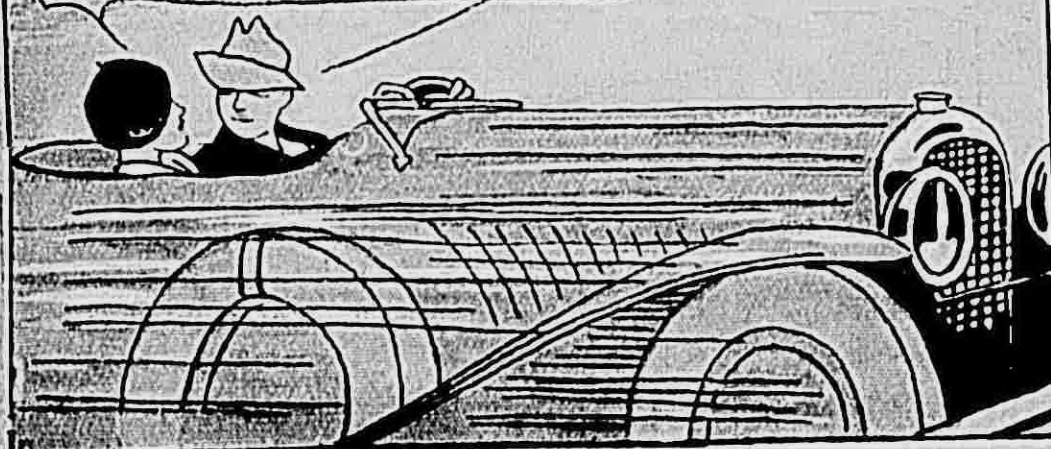

-it's not a bad idea to look a little "arty" too-

-there's Jack now!

It'll be terribly exciting - I s'pose artists don't know anything but their art-

-not a thing!

-I hear old Gamboge is broke-

-Yeah - he's no business man

-Well, I cleaned up a coupla thou on Corrugated Cavilflower - Camembert Motors looks pretty good-

-I told this bird I wouldn't touch it for less'n 500 smackers

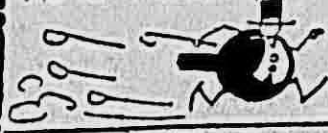

-6 1/2 per cent Montivedeo Government Bonds-

How's things Ted?

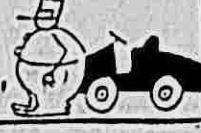

HELP!
CAB, SIR? NOPE!
ONE REEL CLASSIC -

HELLO, HELLO.- CAN I HIRE AN AUTO HERE?

YEZZER.

GIVE ME THE SPEEDIEST ONE YOU'VE GOT.

WHAT FOR?

NONE O' YER BUSINESS.- COME ON WITH A FAST BUS.

I MUST KNOW WHAT FOR.

A COUPLE SNAILS ESCAPED FROM THE ZOO!

THE GOD DINGDONG LAND

In my last yarn I told about th' pearls Spike and I found in a secret lagoon, and how I had brought up a handful.

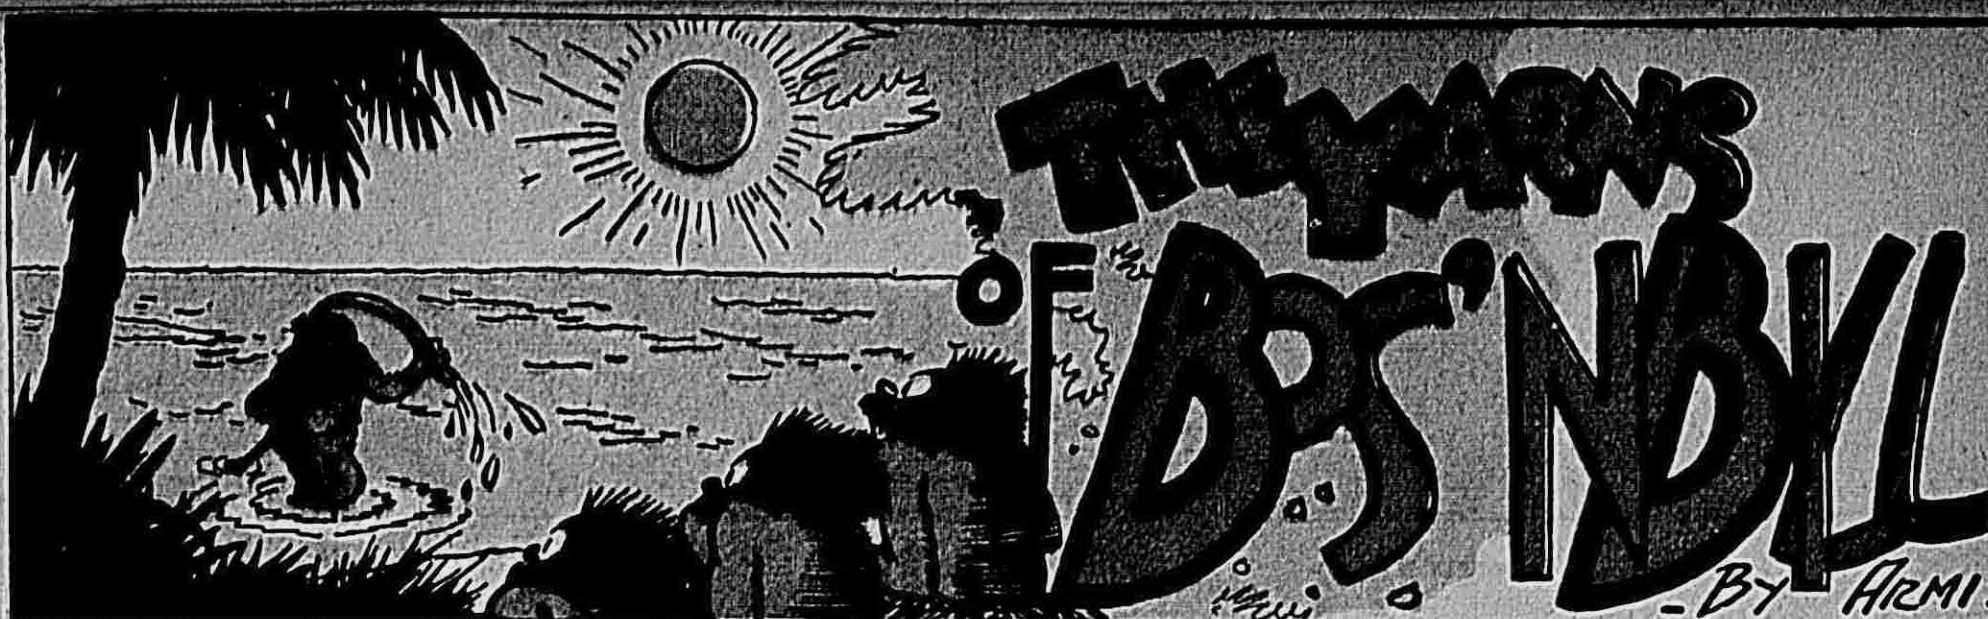

Th' next day as I was puttin' on my divin' suit, Spike spotted some savages on th' beach watchin' us and jabberin' like a lot of ding-busted parrots. They were tough lookin' customers, and Barney said we'd better hoist anchor and get away. But I wanted some more of those big pearls. So, after I'd climbed into my divin' suit, Spike said if th' savages started to come aboard he'd haul me up.

I'd just dropped to th' bottom when I spotted a beautiful big pearl. I was reachin' for it when I was yanked through th' water, up toward th' schooner. When I came to th' surface I'll be dodgasted if there weren't two big, ugly savages haulin' away on my life-line. Soon's they saw me, they dropped th' line, and th' whole lot of 'em jumped overboard and made for the beach. I guess they thought they'd hauled up a devil-god from th' sea.

Spike, and Tony, th' cook, were tied to th' mainmast. Soon's I got 'em loose Spike told me how th' savages had surprised 'em, tied 'em up, and then found and stole our pearls. Right away I thought of a way to get our pearls back. That night I put on th' divin' suit and walked ashore on th' bottom of th' lagoon to the native village where the savages were sleeping. I slipped into the devil-devil house, where they keep their wooden gods, and sure enough, at th' feet of one of th' gods were th' pearls.

In my next yarn see what happens to me before I get back to th' schooner with th' pearls.

IN A SECRET LAGOON THE SCHOONER BELONGING TO DOS' N DILL AND HIS SHIPMATE SPIKE HAS BEEN ANCHORED FOR MANY DAYS. THEY HAVE FOUND PEARLS! BUT DANGER THREATENS THEM! SAVAGE NATIVES ARE WATCHING THEM! Look!
